

Pei (Amy) Chu

PhD Candidate in Accounting and Finance · CFA Level II

✉ zjjxitongchu@gmail.com | 📞 +44 7421 726955 | 📍* Edinburgh, UK

PROFILE

PhD researcher in corporate governance and technology management, with expertise in machine learning, survival analysis, and panel data econometrics. Doctoral research investigates the timing and dynamics of Chief Technology Officer appointments, contributing to upper echelons theory and strategic leadership literature. Three years of university teaching experience with 400+ students taught and 20+ MSc dissertations supervised. Published in the International Journal of Finance & Economics. Over five years of professional experience in financial policy analysis at the People's Bank of China.

EDUCATION

PhD in Accounting and Finance 2021 – 2026 (expected)
The University of Edinburgh, Edinburgh, UK

- Thesis: The Timing and Dynamics of Chief Technology Officer Appointment
- Supervisors: Prof. Jake Ansell (Primary), Prof. Tina Harrison (Secondary)
- Methods: Survival Analysis (Cox/PWP), GAMM, XGBoost, PSM, Event Studies, Panel Econometrics
- Edinburgh Award Scholarship (£30,000)

PGCert in Academic Practice 2023 – Present
The University of Edinburgh – Curriculum design, assessment, inclusive teaching

MSc Banking and Finance – Distinction (77.3%) 2019 – 2020
Newcastle University, Newcastle upon Tyne, UK

- Dissertation: CEO Gender and Cross-border M&A Performance (80%, Outstanding)

MEng Financial Software Engineering Hunan University (1985), China 2011 – 2014

BMan in Accounting Hunan Univ. of Tech. and Business, China 2007 – 2011

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Corporate Governance: Executive appointments, board composition, technology leadership

Technology Management: CTO role evolution, digital transformation, innovation strategy

Quantitative Methods: ML in finance, predictive modelling, causal inference

Sustainable Finance: ESG integration, corporate sustainability, responsible investment

Banking: Central banking, monetary policy, financial stability, fintech

PUBLICATIONS

Chu, P. (2024). “Do women in the boardroom influence foreign acquisitions’ premium and outcomes? Evidence from China.” International Journal of Finance & Economics, 29(1), 286–303.

4 Working Papers targeting: J. Corporate Finance, Strategic Management J., J. Management, J. Business Research

9 Chinese peer-reviewed articles on fiscal policy and treasury management (2014–2017)

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

FMA Annual Meeting, Texas (2024): “Board Gender Diversity and Cross-border M&A”

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Teaching Assistant – Corporate Finance University of Edinburgh 2022 – Present

- Delivered 120+ tutorials to 400+ students over 3 years; marked 85+ reports per term
- Designed problem-solving exercises using real-world corporate finance cases
- Held weekly office hours for one-on-one student guidance

Expert Supervisor – MSc Dissertations University of Edinburgh 2023 – Present

- Supervised 20+ MSc dissertations; 5 awarded Distinction
- Guided quantitative methodology: event studies, panel data, survival analysis

Mentor – Global Business Challenge *University of Edinburgh*2023 – 2024

Prepared to teach: Corporate Finance, Financial Statement Analysis, Sustainable Finance, Quantitative Methods, AI/ML for Finance

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Research Assistant *University of Edinburgh Business School*2021 – Present

– NatWest Bank-funded project analysing global youth lending patterns

– Selected for PhD Research Assistant Think Tank – only 10 across Business School

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Deputy Director People’s Bank of China, Hunan Branch2017 – 2019

– Managed policy analysis and coordinated regulatory inspections across provincial branch

– Liaised with 50+ commercial banks on regulatory compliance

Treasury Statistics Analyst People’s Bank of China, Yiyang Branch2014 – 2017

– Authored 9 research papers; recognised as regional innovation model

RESEARCH SKILLS

Methods: Panel econometrics, survival analysis (Cox/PWP), ML (XGBoost, RF), GAMM, PSM, event studies

Software: Stata (5+ yrs), Python (3+ yrs), R (2+ yrs), $\text{\LaTeX}$

Data: WRDS (Compustat, CRSP, BoardEx, ExecuComp), Bloomberg, Wind

Languages: Mandarin Chinese (Native), English (Fluent)

AWARDS

Edinburgh Award Scholarship (£30,000)University of Edinburgh, 2021

Outstanding GraduateNewcastle University, 2019

Excellent Lecturer – “Three Hundred” ProjectsPBOC, 2018

Speech Competition First PrizePBOC Wuhan & Hunan, 2014

LEADERSHIP & SERVICE

Campus Ambassador – only PhD rep, Edinburgh Business School2021 – Present

Residence Assistant – 30+ events/yr for 200+ residents2021 – Present

English Volunteer – refugee support, Newcastle2019 – 2020

PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATIONS

CFA Level II (Passed) • Chinese CPA • Intermediate Accountant